JCNA Rally Committee

Notes from 2015

- Current instructions are adequate, they are causing no confusion among participating affiliate clubs
- Automatic scoring system is not working on new web site. Jay Hixson is keeping separate scoring program using spread sheets. Current standings are up-to-date and available but we do not have a place to post them on the JCNA web site. Fixing website issues should be highest priority in 2016
- Jay Hixson tried to initiate quarterly committee phone meetings but got no response from other committee members (one member responded a few months later)
