Head for the Mountains with the Carolina Jaguar Club for its 2013 Concours in the lovely Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina. This is a sanctioned JCNA concours event, judged by rules at www.jcna.com.

The Concours is held at the Switzerland Inn in Little Switzerland, North Carolina. The Switzerland Inn offers a lovely setting on the crest of the Blue Ridge Mountains and is just a few hundred yards from the Blue Ridge Parkway near mile post 334. There is a 100% chance of cooler temperatures at this mountain top location versus what you will be experiencing down in the “flatlands” in July! Check out www.Switzerlandinn.com for more information about the Inn.

The Carolina Jaguar Club has held their annual JCNA sanctioned Concours at the Switzerland Inn for several years now and has a full range of activities to offer.

If you plan to arrive on Thursday evening, you can join other attendees at a Thursday night cookout. Meet old friend and make new ones.

On Friday we are featuring a new event, the “Mystery Drive”. Participants will start leaving the Switzerland Inn in their Jaguars about 9 a.m., following a set of directions. The morning drive will take you through the beautiful Pisgah National Forest and past rural farms of the Blue Ridge Mountains for several hours. While you drive you will watch for answers to a series of questions provided with your route directions to our secret luncheon destination. Prizes? Of course! A wonderful luncheon buffet is planned. The buffet includes pulled pork BBQ, lemon herb chicken, baked beans, mac and cheese, cole slaw, breads, and fruit cobbler. After lunch, we have a croquet demonstration planned, followed by a return to the Inn along the Blue Ridge Parkway. Scheduling will allow you plenty of time Friday afternoon to prepare your car for Saturday’s concours.

Friday evening join us on the patio for a sponsored cocktail party. Afterwards, you may wish to join us as we try out the Switzerland Inn’s Prime Rib and Seafood Buffet. This is an informal get together. A cash bar will be available. Following dinner, there will be a general interest presentation regarding Jaguar cars.

Saturday is our main event, the Concours. A detailed schedule is attached. Entrants should note that washing stations will be provided both Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. The show field will be open to the general public with no entry charge on Saturday. For Saturday lunch, a buffet of cold cuts will be available or order à la carte in the Switzerland Inn restaurant.

Also during the day Saturday, there will be a Silent Auction. A number of items will be available for you to bid on. Proceeds from the Silent Auction will benefit our Concours Sponsored Charity, USO of North Carolina.

Every JCNA member who attends the show on Saturday will be able to cast their vote for the Isabel Parish Memorial People’s Choice car award.

Saturday evening everyone is encouraged to sign up for our gala banquet and awards ceremony, which will be preceded by a sponsored cocktail party. New this year, we are going to serve our Saturday banquet dinner buffet style. The buffet will feature Chef’s Carved beef and pork tenderloin, Bourbon Pecan trout, “Hoppin’ John” chicken, various vegetables, salads, potatoes, rice, and desserts.

We will announce the winners in the various Concours categories, as well as the Popular Choice winner. Our Trophy Sponsor is Scott Jaguar.

Sunday attendees are on their own to spend the day as they wish. You won’t want to sleep in too late, as there are some great twisty and scenic driving roads in the area that beg to be explored in your Jaguar. The Little Switzerland area has a number of shops to vie for your attention. The tallest peak east of the Mississippi, Mount Mitchell, is an easy drive down the Blue Ridge Parkway. It may seem like cheating but you can drive right to the top! Other major NC mountain attractions, such as Grandfather Mountain, the Boone area, Linville Falls, Asheville, and the Biltmore Estate are nearby as well.

We would like to thank our sponsors:

- Scott Jaguar
- Flow Jaguar
- Coventry West
- Jaguar South

So make plans to join us this July. Be sure and sign up on the attached Entry Form. We promise you will have a great time!
