RE: 2022 AGM JJC Report
DATE: February 8, 2022

Worked with Business Committee on JCNA budget as it related to Jaguar Journal.

Please see Peter Crespin's Jaguar Journal editor report, and Diane Dufour's Jaguar Journal advertising report. Jaguar Journal production and advertising is stable, and we continue to work with Graphcom for layout and production.

The Jaguar Journal continues to run on schedule, or early, and Peter Crespin, Greg Wells, and Diane Dufour continue in their respective roles. Nicole Smart has recently begun to write the Member Spotlight. We warmly acknowledge Greg's contribution by writing this piece for several years. Graphcom continues to handle layout, printing, and shipping. Costs are stable. Advertising revenue, which reduces member cost to produce and deliver the magazine, is stable.

Les Hamilton negotiated an agreement for the magazine to be published and posted electronically on Zinio.com, after thoroughly researching suitable online sites. So it appears that Jaguar Journal could become available to JCNA members in digital format.

A heartfelt thanks to our Jaguar Journal advertisers for their continued commitment to advertise with us during COVID.
