The Virginia Jaguar Club is delighted to announce they will host the JCNA 2013 Challenge Championship, June 12-16, 2013. Please mark your calendars to attend this national event. The host venue will be the Wyndham Virginia Crossings, the site of the 2011 JCNA AGM.

The Richmond Region offers easy access to the ocean, mountains and Washington, D.C. Getting here is easy. The Region is located within a day's drive of half of the U.S. population, two hours south of Washington D.C. and two hours west of the Atlantic Coast. The Region's minimal traffic makes traveling throughout the area a breeze. Enjoy easy access to Interstate 95 (which runs north-south) and Interstate 64 (which runs east-west), providing swift routes to destinations all across the eastern half of the United States.

In addition, Richmond offers numerous historic landmarks, art museums, wineries and plantation homes for local sightseeing. For extended day trips, Richmond is less than an hour away from historic Colonial Williamsburg and less than two hours from the scenic Blue Ridge Parkway.

The Wyndham Virginia Crossings is a perfect location for Jaguar. The 20 acres of lushly landscaped property which surrounds the Georgian inspired buildings lends itself well to hosting the Jaguar owners, enthusiasts and Jaguar cars.

In the evenings, we are planning a variety of dinners and cocktail hours with national and International speakers. Dave Kinney, with Hagerty's "Cars that Matter", will serve as our Friday night keynote speaker, discussing Jaguar evaluations, and trends in the classic and antique market place. On Saturday evening with further award presentations on the way, you will hear from Ian Callum, chief designer for Jaguar Cars. Hopefully he will discuss the new developments at Jaguar, including their long awaited sports car.

The Virginia Crossings will be a great setting to initiate the events you have come for – rally, slalom and national concour – The Challenge Championship .The surroundings could not be a better classic stage for such an event.

The room rates at the Virginia Crossings will be $128 per night, double occupancy and we are planning the Challenge Championship package to fall between $300-$350, excluding the room rate.

Please mark your calendars, June 12-16, 2013 and join us in Richmond, VA for the 2013 Challenge Championship.
