Andrew Whyte Award:

Many individuals were considered for the Andrew Whyte Award. An individual was selected who has provided great service to the JCNA for many years.

Dealership of the Year:

There were two Dealership of the Year candidates from which the most supporting was selected. There were many comments that we wished that all dealerships were as helpful, accommodating and generous.

JCNA Club Web Site Excellence Award:

Again, we reviewed every one of the JCNA Clubs personal web sites and found many improvements from last year. Overall the quality and quantity of information is improving on the Club's web sites. Not every Club has an independent web site but more are creating them. Many Clubs are becoming very creative in the information and presentations that they have on the JCNA hosted Club web sites. Again this year, we selected the best of the East Coast and the West Coast. Two awards will probably not be presented every year in the future. There is consideration to fully evaluate the JCNA hosted Club Web Sites and the JCNA Club's independent Facebook sites, but that will not happen in the near future. We certainly encourage more club involvement and improvements in what is a great recruiting tool for the Clubs and JCNA.

JCNA Fred Horner Sportsman Award:

The tallying for the overall participation in all the sanctioned JCNA vehicle events in 2012 is still proceeding. This is new selection criteria for the 2012 Award and will open up the Award to individuals that are out and about with their Jaguars, in front of the public most often and not just in certain competitive situations or with competition results..

JCNA Newsletter Awards:

The review of the Newsletter Award submissions is still proceeding. There will probably be changes coming to the 2013 Newsletter Awards. Look to the May/June 2013 Jaguar Journal for updates.

Business Issues:

Our committee is spread over 6 time zones and has been conducting meetings through WebEx interactive conference calls.

We are putting together a list of our duties and responsibilities, sort of a Committee Charter which will be added to the JCNA Corporate Policy in the future.

The JCNA web site will also be providing more exposure to The Special Awards so JCNA members can find the award information, requirements and history more easily.
